Motion Carried

RCMP

Sgt. Marshall

Sgt. Gale

Both officers were thankful for the opportunity to address the group.

Some items discussed:

1. Speeding in Towns
2. Prescription drug abuse
3. Detachments - Bay Roberts - Detachment A
Harbour Grace - Detachment B (effective full time status
As of April 1, 2016)
4. Youth Crime
5. Violence Prevention
6. Organized crime

Officers present spoke on the various initiatives as outlined above.

Those present at the meeting discussed speed issues, crime, drug use taking place in their respective Towns. RCMP noted that there needs to be a good partnership between Towns and RCMP, noting that both play a significant role.

Twenty eight members are shared between the two detachments with Zone A being the busiest. Bay Roberts Detachment has one full time administrative person employed while Harbour Grace has two full time administrative persons.

RCMP officers were thanked by Chair of Joint Council for attending.

Both Sgt. Gale & Marshall thanked Joint Council for opportunity to attend!

Chairperson Power thanked Ms. Parsley, Parsons and Mr. McDonald for attending the meeting. Very informative session for the Joint Council.
